REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.

EXECUTRIX'S PEREMPTORY SALE.—Estate of Hanson Robinson, dec'd.—Thomas & Sons, Auctioneers. Very Elegant Country Seat and Farm known as "Woolton Hall," Mansion, Farm and Tenant Houses, 50 acres, Philadelphia and Wilmington Turnpike, Brandywine Hundred, New Castle county, Delaware, from Bellevue Station, on the Philadelphia, Wilmington, and Baltimore Railroad, half mile from the river Delaware, 2 miles from Philadelphia, 2 miles from Chester, and 23 miles from Philadelphia. On Tuesday, May 16, 1871, at 12 o'clock, noon, will be sold at public sale, with a reserve whatever, at the Philadelphia Exchange.

All that very elegant country-seat and farm, comprising 10 acres of land, situate on the westerly side of the Philadelphia Turnpike, and bounded on two private roads, three fronts, about 9 miles below Chester, 2 above Wilmington, 23 from Philadelphia, half mile of the New Delaware, and about 2 squares from Bellevue Station, on the Philadelphia, Wilmington, and Baltimore Railroad, half mile from the river Delaware, 2 miles from Philadelphia, 2 miles from Chester, and 23 miles from Philadelphia. On Tuesday, May 16, 1871, at 12 o'clock, noon, will be sold at public sale, with a reserve whatever, at the Philadelphia Exchange.

A genteel 2½-story stone farm house, two-story stone tenant house, stone stable and carriage house (Norman style), stone and brick outhouses, stone and brick, filled with a keeping-room for provisions; frame tool house, stone and frame barn, gas house, built in stone, complete arrangement for making gas, the opening of the frame barn, frame chicken house, 6 acres of woodland, a rivulet of pure spring water runs through it, and collected by a small dam, and carried 125 feet through iron pipes into the ran box, the surplus flowing into the pond; also a fish pond, beautiful stone wall on the turnpike front, garden, with a large flagstone, very elegant. Orange orange hedge, forms a beautiful cover to the front lawn; the gravel drives about half-mile in length, ranging from 10 to 20 feet wide; are thoroughly made, paved with large stones and covered with broken stones and gravel, and underground drainage; large vegetable garden, beautiful lawn, in the center of the farm, and some fine summer house, surrounded by beautiful trees; abundance of fruit trees, apple orchard, etc.; also, 416 beautiful and well-grown pear and evergreen trees on the sides of the drives and around the mansion.

This property was built by the late Hanson Robinson, for his own occupancy, and no expense has been spared to make it a very elegant and substantial country seat, all the materials being of the best, and the grounds beautifully laid out. The mansion is located in the center of an extensive lawn, elevated over 200 feet above the river Delaware, and commands a beautiful and extended view up and down the river and surroundings. The location is especially healthy. Photographs, plans, and pamphlets, containing more full particulars, may be seen at the Auction Rooms, Philadelphia, or at the office of Samuel M. Harrington, Esq., Attorney for the Executrix, second street, between Seventh and Market streets, Wilmington, Delaware, where any one wishing to view the premises can get conveyances. Train leaves Philadelphia at 8:30 and 11 A. M., and 2:30, 5, and 7 P. M., for Bellevue Station. The house and premises will be ready for inspection at all times. On Tuesday and Fridays of each week a carriage will be at Bellevue Station, and the arrival of 11 A. M. and 2:30 P. M. trains from Philadelphia, to convey visitors to the property.
